“ As previously disclosed, on March 29, 2024, we entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (the “Merger Agreement”) with Nina Footwear Corp., a Delaware corporation (“Nina Footwear”), and Kidpik Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Kidpik (“Merger Sub”), whereby Nina Footwear will merge with and into Merger Sub, with Nina Footwear continuing as the surviving entity trading, trading on Nasdaq under the new symbol – ‘NINA’, upon closing (the “Merger”). While we work towards closing the Merger, we have eliminated marketing expenditures for subscription services and ceased the purchase of new inventory as we are working to clear and maximize the return on our current inventory in anticipation of the combination with Nina Footwear,” stated Mr. Ezra Dabah, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer.

“We and Nina Footwear remain committed to closing the Merger, a transaction which we believe will increase Kidpik’s revenue, cashflow and prospects, while also strengthening Kidpik’s balance sheet and significantly increasing stockholder value, said Mr. Dabah.”

We Take Privacy Seriously X

The closing of the Merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including the preparation and mailing of a proxy statement by Kidpik, and the receipt of required stockholder approvals from Kidpik and Nina Footwear stockholders, and is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2024.

Kidpik will not be reporting earnings for the second quarter 2024 results, as the Company continues to move forward with the Merger.

Gross profit is equal to our net sales less cost of goods sold. Gross profit as a percentage of our net sales is referred to as gross margin. Cost of sales consists of the purchase price of merchandise sold to customers and includes import duties and other taxes, freight in, returns from customers, inventory write-offs, and other miscellaneous shrinkage. The improvement in the gross margin was the result of an inventory write-down in the fourth quarter of 2023. Without the reduction of the cost basis due to the write-down, gross margin would be 60.7% for the 13 weeks ended June 29, 2024 and 55.9% for the 26 weeks ended June 29, 2024.
